

24 November 2011

Department of Geography Grading Policy

“The Geography Department has adopted a mixed marking method to evaluate student assignments and exams. This means that instructors will assign letter grades for all essays and essay-based exams and assignments and numeric grades for exams and assignments based on short answer questions, multiple choice, true or false, etc., where letter grades are impractical.”